Graham Lyons serves as the firm's Managing Partner and is a member of the Business & Real Estate Group. His practice focuses on real estate matters involving the due diligence, acquisition, financing, entitlement and construction of residential, mixed-use, hospitality and institutional projects. Graham represents clients in all aspects of the land use entitlement process, including project feasibility analysis, zoning, subdivision, title, and environmental issues. He regularly appears before state and local agencies on behalf of his clients and their development projects. Graham also represents clients in the financing and construction of their entitled projects. Graham also counsels businesses and non-profits on entity formation, general corporate matters, and real estate-related issues. For the firm's public agency clients, Graham regularly advises on issues related to the Brown Act, the Public Records Act, and public contracting.
